

Ice Theatre of New York's FREE City Skate Concert Series

Listing Information: Ice Theatre of New York's City Skate Concert Series
Dates: Wednesdays, February 1 (no rain date), February 29, March 14 & April 4
@ 1 p.m. (Rain date is the following day at 1 p.m.)
Venue: the Rink at Rockefeller Center
Admission: FREE
For More Information: ITNY at (212) 929-5811

New York City, NY--Ice Theatre of New York (ITNY), the nation's premier ice dance ensemble presents the 26th edition of its City Skate Concert Series at The Rink at Rockefeller Center. Performances feature Ice Theatre of New York and special guest artists performing diverse and exciting repertory on the world's most famous ice stage.

Each concert has a unique theme. The February 1st concert is called the Winter Suite and features ensemble numbers, solo and duets. The February 29th concert is titled Masculine/Feminine: representations of gender roles in figure skating. This concert will feature a re-staging of David Parsons's Twist, a duet he made for the company in 2003. The March concert is called Energy Flow and explores the meditative qualities of skating. Ice Theatre is excited to recreate Angel Part I, Ann Carlson's Tibetan chant piece, which she created for the company in 1989/90. April will showcase new works as well as favorites from the season. We will feature Adam Blake, this year's winner of the Young Artist Showcase, a competition for young skating choreographers. Program subject to change.